ANNOUNCEMENT!

Save the date reminder! Customer Conference October 25-27, 2006

Alliant Systems Customer Conference Scheduled for October 2006!

- The conference will kick off on Wednesday evening, October 25th with a reception at the Ft. Worth Hilton. The conference will begin Thursday morning and conclude around noon on Friday.
- Conference topics will include educational sessions on learning to better utilize the Alliant software. Specific sessions on price types and billing options will be included. We will also review all the enhancements added to the Alliant software in the past year.
- Back by popular request, we will host a dinner Thursday night on the rooftop at the Reata restaurant in downtown Ft. Worth.
- Several guest speakers will be on hand to offer insight on other technologies available to operators.
- We hope you plan on joining us for a great program and the opportunity to network with other industry operators. An invitation with details and registration materials will be mailed in the coming weeks.
- In 2005, we quickly sold out of hotel rooms at our customer conference - so be sure to register early for this year's event.
